Dr. Cook Claims Charming Bride in Arizona Ceremony

In a simple ceremony performed Saturday morning in Yuma, Arizona, Dr. Eugene L. Cook claimed as his bride Miss Virginia Gutekunst of 722 Portola avenue, a member of the nursing staff of Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Bert M. Lynn of 1208 Greenwood avenue.

The bride was lovely in hunters green lace with which she contrasted bronze accessories chosen to match her corsage of orchids. Mrs. Lynn wore plum-colored taffeta, black accessories and purple orchids.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony and Dr. and Mrs. Cook returned to Torrance to make their home temporarily at the Portola avenue address. Their honeymoon will be a trip to Hawaii, planned for early next month.

Dr. Cook is a senior member of Torrance Medical Group and serves Torrance Memorial Hospital as chief of staff.

Housewarming Party Honors Barrington's

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, new residents of Post avenue, were the surprised honorees at an enjoyable housewarming party arranged Saturday evening by an intimate group of friends.

A handsome group gift for their new home was presented by approximately ten Torrance couples and at midnight a delicious buffet supper was served, arrangements for which were completed by the guests.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was a showing of colored moving pictures of Torrance Kiwanis groups, with Miss Frances Barrington, the honored couple's daughter, operating the projector.

Bake Sale Saturday

Members of the Brunch Club of First Methodist Church are sponsoring a sale of baked goods and cooked foods to be held Saturday at the entrance to Levy's Department Store.
